A PROCLAMATION

For further Proroguing the Parliament.

CHARLES R.

Whereas the Parliament was prorogued unto the first day of October next coming, The Kings most Excellent Majesty (by the Advice of his Privy Council) for divers weighty Reasons, doth by this his Royal Proclamation further prorogue the same Parliament, and the same is hereby prorogued unto the One and twentieth day of the same Moneth: And his Majesty doth hereby Command and Require the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens and Burghesses, to give their attendance at Westminster on the said One and twentieth day of October.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall the 25th day of September 1678.

In the Thirtieth year of Our Reign.

God save the King.
